

Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions maintains a website which provides a list of all claims filed and electronic copies of the actual claim. The website is located at <http://schedule.bsillc.com>. In order to obtain a copy of your claim you must do the following:

- 1) You must first scroll down on the first the screen to the letter “T” and click the “The Consumers Trust” icon under that letter “T”;
- 2) Click the drop-down arrow next to “name starts with” and click the “name contains” option;
- 3) Type in your last name in the empty box located to the right of the box that now shows “name contains”;
- 4) Click the “Search” icon located on the lower right corner of the screen;
- 5) Search for your name and then click “image” located to the right of your name in order to access the copy of your proof of claim. The document can be both printed and saved on your computer.

If you have any difficulty accessing the Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions website, Fulbright is available to search and obtain a copy of the claim for you. Just send an email requesting help to the Committee’s website and we help you as soon as possible.
